DELIVERABLE · STOCHNA

Baseline — Stochna Kitchen Brewery — measured 2026-11-02

One page, measured before the Stage 1 revision and before the marketing loop's first full month under Vios, so every later report shows change against it. Written by `vios-engage:vios-engagement-setup` step 7 (run by hand, 2 Nov 2026); read by `vios-marketing:vios-monthly-report` (column "Baseline") and by the proposal's KPI table. Every row names its source and its n; a row that cannot be filled reads "to confirm" with a row in `open-facts.md`. Nothing is estimated.

Period measured: 2026-08-01 to 2026-10-31 (3 fiscal months, fiscal day cut at 06:45 Sofia) · same period last year: no history (venue data starts 29 Apr 2026) Revenue basis: net of VAT unless marked gross · currency EUR as stored · one location (Memento location 10) Raw pulls: `data/2026-11/pos-labour-bookings_source-memento-supabase_pulled-2026-11-02.{json,md}` , `data/2026-11/google-reviews_source-google-maps_pulled-2026-11-02.md` , `data/2026-11/ads-audit_2026-11-02.md`

7. Reading (five lines)

1. A dinner house: 84 % of covers between 18:00 and 22:00, Saturday the peak day; the October gyros lunch is the only daypart that moved (114 → 503 covers).
2. Beer is the volume (five house beers are the top five items; drinks alcohol 31 % of revenue) but food carries the money (62 %); the beer platter and the Black Angus burger are the top food contributors.
3. Prime cost ran 76–88 % of net revenue over the three months, labour 44–52 % on its own; the September peak is a labour peak, not a sales one.
4. Seven in ten guests arrive on a booking (702 a month, party of five, 1 % no-shows); Google and the website each bring about a quarter of bookings, Instagram 1 %.
5. Guests rate it 4.9 from 1,299 reviews and talk about the beer; what they say beyond that, and what the agency's ads cost, is not on file.
